To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

BUTTER MARKET.—Prices to-day have ranged from thirty-five to forty cents per pound, according to quality. Over seventeen hundred tubs have been shipped, beside a considerable quantity of cheese.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

G. A. R.—Post No. 2, Burlington, have voted to call the Post "Post Standard."

THE CIRCUS.—The attendance last evening was fully as large as in the afternoon, and the performance passed off to the entire satisfaction of all present.

THE CHAMPLAIN BASE BALL CLUB of Burlington, challenge any club to play for the championship of Chittenden County. The challenge is to remain open fifteen days.

DELEGATES.—J. A. Page, P. P. Pitkin, Charles Reed, and Joel Foster, Jr., are the Montpelier delegates to the District Convention at Rutland.

BASE BALL.—The American and Canadian Base Ball players propose to hold a convention in October, either in Pittsburgh or Cleveland.

A NEW MINERAL SPRING.—The Brattleboro Phoenix thus notices the purchase of a new mineral spring: The Lovel Bullock farm, at Guilford Centre, has been recently purchased by parties from out of town for the sum of $5,000. A mineral spring, whose waters have long been noted for their properties, is understood to be the object sought. An analysis made by Dr. Jackson of Boston, discloses a close similarity to the water of the Congress Springs at Saratoga. The purchasers are Joseph Burnett of Boston, James Dalton, late of Calcutta, India, and H. P. Ducloux of Brattleboro. They propose to bottle the water for use.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—On Saturday night Mr. Samuel Webster, of Fairfax, was aroused from his sleep by noises from persons who had effected an entrance into his bedroom. He called out to the rascals or rascals, who immediately knocked him senseless. Thereupon they took possession of a small trunk, which was in the room, and made good their escape. The next morning the contents of the trunk, which were of no value except to the owner, were found scattered about the premises. It seems that Mr. Webster had been in the habit of keeping several thousands of dollars in bonds and a small amount of specie, in the trunk, but fortunately he made other disposition of them a few days previous; and of this the rascals were not aware. The guilty parties, it is supposed, are a man who has been in the employ of Mr. Webster and two others from Canada.

We understand that the barn of Mr. Webster was broken into two weeks previous and two or three harnesses stolen.

FAREWELL SERVICE.—We learn from Monday's Montpelier Journal that Rev. Mr. Taylor preached his final discourse yesterday afternoon, replete with earnest instruction and tender farewell. In the evening, at the Sabbath School Concert, we understand services were held appropriate to the occasion—consisting of a song, "Farewell to our pastor," an essay on temperance; presentation to the retiring pastor of an album, containing the photographs of several teachers and scholars; and a farewell address. Response was made by Mr. Taylor, and an interesting talk to the children by Prof. Wilder, of Newbury Seminary.

DEAF MUTES.—A meeting of the New England Association of Deaf Mutes will be held at Brattleboro, on the 26th of August, and will continue in session two or three days. On Thursday, the 27th, an oration will be delivered by Prof. James Denison, of the National Deaf Mute College, Washington, D. C., formerly of Vermont. There will also be addresses by other gentlemen, both deaf and hearing. Rev. Dr. Gallaudet will act as interpreter for hearing persons unacquainted with signs. In the evening a social reunion will be held.

The Public Park and Sidewalks.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:
I noticed a communication in your daily paper of yesterday from "a stranger," relative to the condition of the village park and streets. There is no doubt but that the people of St. Albans generally agree with "a stranger," in the view taken of these things, but so commonplace have these matters become, that they fail to make the impressions upon us which their importance demands. St. Albans is a young village, which fact might be urged in excuse for many of these faults complained of; but with our rapidly increasing population we should look more than we have been accustomed to do to the streets, walks, public park, and the sanitary condition of the village generally. There is no citizen but will readily acknowledge that the park, though already an ornament to the place, is not what it should or might be. Our streets are carelessly left in their accumulating filth to take care of themselves. Especially do I speak of the condition of Lake street. A little effort on the part of each one to clean away the rubbish in front of their own premises would save us many mortifications and insure more perfect health among the inhabitants. Many of us hope to live to see the time when the financial condition of the village will warrant a suitable outlay for more permanent walks and a proper enclosure of the park. The park might be better taken care of now. A RESIDENT.

DOGS!—The grand list of 1867 returns ten thousand nine hundred and thirty-one taxable dogs in this State. Rutland is the banner county, having fourteen hundred and thirty-one; and Rutland the banner town, with a full kennel of two hundred and seventy-eight. Next on the list is Fairfield, with one hundred and seventy-five. Montpelier boasts of only forty-eight. Allowing the taxes to be 200 per cent., which is a fair average, we have the sum of $21,864.00 raised by taxation on dogs.—Montpelier Journal.

A BASKET EXCURSION.—We understand that the Sabbath School scholars and those connected with the Congregational Sabbath School will make an excursion on the "River Queen" among the Lake Islands on Thursday next. This will be their first excursion for many years, and we hope they will enjoy their "pie-nie," an institution in connection with Sabbath schools which may be regarded as a delightful necessity in these later times.

POLITICAL.—The Democrats of Rutland County and all others "who are opposed to the present system of unequal taxation" are requested to meet in Convention at Rutland on the 12th of August to nominate county officers.

Willard Warner, the new Alabama Senator, was a member of the last Ohio Legislature.

The Lawrence (Mass.) says that one of the most prominent Democrats in that part of Essex County repudiates the nomination of Seymour and Blair.

The Chicago Journal thus speaks of the Southern Delegates to the Democratic Convention:
One significant fact in connection with the recent Democratic National Convention, namely, that every delegate in the convention, from the Southern States, was a secessionist. Not one of the cent's number had been a loyal Union man during the war. We presume it is also true that there is not a man in the South—white or black—who was loyal to the Union during the war, who was, or Seymour or Blair. At all events, the South is not a solitary Southern rebel or Northern sympathizer with the rebels who is not for that ticket.

Hon. Wm. Claflin, it is believed, will be nominated for Governor by the Republicans of Massachusetts.

Tennyson must have been wishing for just such a man as Grant when he wrote the following lines in "Maud":
Ah! God, for a man with heart, head, hand,
Like some of the simple great ones gone
Forever and ever by;
One still strong man in a blotted land,
Whatever they call him, what care I—
Aristocrat, Democrat, Autocrat—one
Who can rule and dare not lie.

"But your candidate I cannot be,"
Seymour, July 9, 1868. But your President I cannot be.—November 8, 1868.

STEAM CARRIAGES.—The following item appears in one of our exchanges.
"James S. Batchelder of Manchester has invented and built a steam wagon, for common roads, which is said to be an ingenious and promising invention."

We should be glad to believe that this invention promises success, yet we do not expect any satisfactory result will be accomplished, even in this line of improvements. There are primary obstacles to be overcome, back of the manner of carriage to be invented. Human wisdom and experience so far has only discovered that the strength, capacity and weight of a Steam Generator, necessary to furnish power sufficient to move itself on wheels over an ordinary earth road, consumes at best the greater part of the power so obtained, leaves little or nothing to move other bodies. When the roads are muddy and hilly the perdition is worse. The same is the only correct view to be taken of the steam plow. The best that any ordinary machine could be expected to do over an ordinary field, would be to move itself and cut loose from the plows. We should hardly think it could accomplish even that, half of the time. It will be wholly impracticable to attempt this manner of conveyance and field plowing, until a common tea kettle can be invented to furnish sufficient steam to run a four horse power engine. The prospect is, we shall be compelled to use horses for these purpose awhile longer.

ST. ALBANS, VT.

At the present time there is much competition among Life Insurance Companies, and many agents are far too regardless of the truth, in statements when soliciting for risks, hence it is all important for persons intending to insure their lives, to insure only with agents whom they know to be reliable, again it is always most satisfactory for parties desiring to have their risks with Local agents, then there is no difficulty or danger of loss in transmitting premiums. Persons intending to insure their lives will find it to their advantage to see the agent of the Guardian Mutual before insuring elsewhere.

LATEST NEWS!

From Washington,

Suits against Butler,

COMMISSIONER ROLLIN'S RESIGNATION.

LETTER FROM GEN. HANCOCK.

WASHINGTON, July 28.

The illustrious Woolley, who figured so prominently in the recent impeachment trial, yesterday sued out a writ against Gen. Butler, in Baltimore, for false imprisonment, in incarcerating him before he had authority to do so from the House. He (Woolley) claims damages to the amount of $100,000. The process was served on Gen. Butler last night, as he passed through Baltimore on his way to Massachusetts. At the same time another writ was served upon him for a suit brought by the Kenkeley Brothers, of Baltimore, to recover thirteen thousand dollars, alleged to have been extorted from them by Butler while commanding at Fortress Munro.

With the terms of his letter, the resignation of Commissioner Rollins is conditional to take effect on the confirmation of his successor. The President holds that the condition is void; that by simply accepting the resignation, he can create a vacancy. It is understood to be his determination to do this and make ad interim appointments within a few days.

Up to a late hour last night it was not definitely known whether the Funding Bill had been signed or not.

An examination of the Treasury Records shows that a large amount of securities are never returned for redemption, and a still larger amount not presented until long overdue.

Speaker Colfax left for the West yesterday, and Vice-President Wade goes to-night.

NEW YORK, July 28.

A letter, written by Gen. Hancock, is published, in which he says "those who suppose that I do not acquiesce in the work of the National Democratic Convention, or that I do not sincerely desire the election of its nominees, know very little of my character." He also says he believes that the preservation of the Constitution immediately depends upon the success of the Democratic party in the coming election.

CINCINNATI, July 27.

The steamer Dexter sunk in the Ohio River this p. m., near Smith's Point. It is reported that three lives were lost.

NEW YORK, July 27.

Gen. Grant and party left Benton for the track of the Pacific Railroad yesterday.
